Biography

Lucilla Tealdi is Senior Lecturer of Corporate Finance and Real Estate at SDA Bocconi School of Management.

At SDA Bocconi, she has been the Director of the Master in Corporate Finance, Lead coach in international specialized Masters, Head of Focus MBA “Global Financial Management”, in charge of internships and placements for the Master in Corporate Finance (MCF), MBA and MIEM Professor. She was a Visiting Professor at the China Europe Business School (1995) and she has taught at the ESA Business School in Lebanon and the American University in Bulgaria. Since 2017, she has been part of the GEMBA (Global Executive MBA) faculty. As part of the Master in Corporate Finance, she initiated a major dual degree program in partnership with Fordham Graduate School (New York). She has conducted research and education projects with leading Italian and international firms.

Her research activities focus on coaching, sustainable investment (SRI), capital budgeting and working capital management. Lucilla has studied learning models and learning styles for many years, and also deals with new innovative teaching tools. In 2018, along with Bocconi BEAT center, she developed an online “Teacher as a coach” course.

She is the author of various books and articles on financial communication, sustainability and coaching. She has recently (2020) published a manual on “Financial Analysis” with Mc Graw Hill. From January 2017, she has been part of the Columbia Coaching Certificate Program revision team at Teachers College, Columbia University (New York).

Lucilla earned a degree cum laude in Business Administration and Finance from New York University, a Master in International Economics and Management (MIEM) from SDA Bocconi and an ITP (International Teachers Programme) from London Business School. In 2011, she earned the Columbia Coaching certificate (CCCP cohort 7) cum laude at Columbia Business School. She is also a certified NBI (Neethling Brain Index) trainer. She is happily married with two children. Her passions are alpine skiing, spinning (Soul Cycle) and coaching.
